

Event Menu

A long table is set for an event, featuring a series of vibrant floral centerpieces in wooden planters. The centerpieces are composed of various flowers in shades of orange, pink, purple, and red, interspersed with greenery and dried floral elements. The table is elegantly set with white linens, including folded napkins secured with small twine ties, and several clear glassware items, likely for water or wine. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the table and a hint of an outdoor or semi-outdoor setting with greenery.
