DISCOVER THE Award Winning OLD COURSE

Offering breathtaking views of the Allegheny Mountains and Cumberland Valley, our remarkable course spans the work of two of golf's architectural masters, A.W. Tillinghast and Donald Ross. Bedford Springs Old Course has undergone a $7.8 million restoration, overseen by noted classic golf course architect Ron Forse. The course has been restored to the way in which Donald Ross last designed it in 1923.

In 1986, the resort's original clubhouse had been damaged in a flood and not rebuilt. In June 2017, we proudly opened the Clubhouse at the Old Course housing a new dining outlet, Tillie's. The design and finishes pay homage to the resort's history while also incorporating modern amenities and elements. The Clubhouse at the Old Course includes an improved pro shop, locker room, and dining opportunity for guests.
